Subject: 🌸 Spring Equinox Book Sale ~ Co-Creating with Nature 🌻

The graphic features a background of a misty forest at dawn. At the top, the text "Spring Equinox" is in white, followed by "BOOK SALE" in large white letters on a purple rectangular background. On the left is the book cover for "CO-CREATING WITH NATURE: Healing the Wound of Separation" by Pam Montgomery, with a foreword by Myra Jackson. The cover art includes a circular diagram with various nature icons. To the right of the book is a quote in white text: "We are in the midst of a global transformation where we must heal our separation from Nature and restore our partnership with the living Earth, which is essential to co-creating a world where all life, human and nonhuman, can thrive." Below the quote is a photo of Pam Montgomery, a woman with short white hair wearing a light blue shirt. At the bottom center, it says "Wake Up to Nature w/ Pam Montgomery" and "wakeuptonature.com" with a small circular logo.

Something is happening right now, [FIRST NAME], I feel it in the Earth, and I feel it in the collective frequency.

Spring always does something to me, I feel like everything is possible again, like we get to begin again. And right now, it seems like more people than ever are waking up to the fact that the way we've been living, separate from Nature, treating the Earth like a commodity, is simply not working, and they're ready for something different.

(I believe that's why you're here, too.)

I wrote Co-Creating with Nature because Gaia asked me to. I know that might sound like an unusual thing to say, but if you know me, you know that's exactly how it works. I only sat down to write when Spirit moved me, and more often than not, it was a plant spirit calling.

I wrote it because I know that healing our separation from Nature is the most important work of our time. Not just for our own wellbeing, but for all of humanity, and for the Earth herself. When we remember that we are OF Nature, it changes everything. How we make decisions. How we treat the land and the water. How we care for each other.

Something I want my plant people to know: nearly a third of this book is still devoted to plants. Because the word "plants" doesn't appear in the title, a lot of you haven't found it yet. It's still very much a plant book. I go deep into plant initiations, how plants actually communicate with us, and what the green elders are telling us right now.

To celebrate the equinox, and this beautiful moment of humanity waking up with the Earth, my newest book, Co-Creating with Nature: Healing the Wound of Separation, is on sale for $22. Every copy will be personally signed by me, US shipping is included, and books will be shipped by April 6th.

Offer ends March 23rd, 2026.

Spring Equinox Blessings,
Pam

PS. If this book has already found its way to you, I have one small ask: would you leave a review on Amazon? Think of it as planting a seed for someone who doesn't know yet that this is exactly what they've been looking for.
